

Rose Poem

You know, the pink rose has become particularly significant in our Company. I would like to share with you this beautiful poem:

Like the covenant of the rainbow

The rose has become the symbol of faith, love and caring humanity.

For a moment, let us examine this perfect rose.

Its color represents a positive quality of the giver.

Its velvety texture represents the quality of the receiver.

The thorns represent challenges and obstacles to overcome.

The stem represents the strength to remain constant in the pursuit of our high ideals.

The scent — why, of course — it's the sweet scent of success whenever we achieve our heart's desires
